

Drum Weaving and Birthing

A Sacred Circle of Creation and Connection

Weave hide and hoop to make a drum in Circle of Creation
Honouring each direction
Heart resounding in balance at the Centre Finding gratitude for the Spirit of life and presence
In connection and reflection
Remembering natural rhythms

A drum is a personal instrument and may be used for healing or jamming; to play alone or with others; to ground and relax; for the joy of expression and connection.

You will receive an invitation to join a monthly Sacred Drum Circle.

Bring: a plastic bucket, sharp strong scissors, 2 old towels, lunch, dinner and snacks, drink, crystals or sacred items whose essence may be imbued, a comfortable length stick to make a drum beater. Materials & instructions provided for the head of your beater.

Take a walk in nature to find your beater stick. May it be long and comfortable to hold in rhythm, strong enough and finished or decorated in a way that brings meaning to you.
